38th Annual Kiki Raina Tahiti Fete

(Tahitian Dance and Cultural Festival)
Golden Valley High School – March 24, 25, 26, 2017

The Kiki Raina Tahiti Fete is the longest existing, annually held, Tahitian dance and cultural festival outside of French Polynesia and we are celebrating our 38th consecutive year! Come to the event to enjoy the sights, sounds, and smells of Tahiti. Our event features a dance competition with people entering from all ranges and performing to live musicians and drums. Island Style food will also be available throughout the weekend as well as Polynesian craft booths straight from Hawaii and the Polynesian diaspora of California.

Friday's events begin at 5pm and end at 10pm. They will showcase dance presentations called Ahuroa, which is a synchronized dance performed by elegantly dressed women to a sung Tahitian narrative, often composed in waltz time. The Masters and Grand Masters categories will also be competing. The evening is completed by the Maeva Merced Pageant, where beautiful young men and women contend for the Maeva title and to represent the festivities.

On Saturday, beginning at 9am, Solo dancers will compete in both eliminations and finals, with ages ranging from 4 to as long as they can continue to shimmy. Categories will be in both beginners and professional, with both men and women competing. During lunch, there will be a "Tamari'i Exhibition", showcasing tiny dancers that are too young to compete, but still love to dance in costume and have fun! Then the Group Drumming competition, composed of the most accomplished Tahitian Drumming groups in our area will take the stage.

Sunday morning will feature the First Place winners of the professional soloists who will compete for the Overall Vahine (female) and Tane (male) "Best Dancer Awards." Also, Couples will take the stage to perform a choreographed duet that highlights their colorful regalia as well as dancing ability. The afternoon continues with Tamari'i (children), Amateur and Professional groups demonstrating their skills in the marvelous 'Ote'a drum dances and the lively Aparima of Tahiti Nui!

The festivities will be held at Golden Valley High School, located at 2121 E. Childs Ave, in Merced, California.
