NOTE TO DANCERS

It is in the dancer's best interest to stay dressed in their solo costume for some time after the performance of the elimination rounds. There are times when a dance-off may be required and time will be saved if the contestant is not only in the performance area but is dressed and ready to dance as well. Dancers will be released after the soloists have been determined.

NOTE TO DIRECTORS AND INSTRUCTORS

Please pay close attention to these rules. There have been a number of ADVANCED dancers that have entered the BEGINNER category. Some dancers have neglected to acknowledge past dance group experience which meets the ADVANCED dancer criteria, while others have intentionally not told current dance group instructors of their past history. Your dancers may be moved to a more difficult category if we know the dancer is ADVANCED.

It is the INSTRUCTOR'S RESPONSIBILITY to objectively review and rate the level of the dancer before competition time, and this should be reflected on the contestants entry form.
