BACKGROUND

Before the Heiva I Tahiti festivities begin every year, each district of Tahiti et ses Iles sponsors a young lady and man to represent them in the Vahine Tahiti / Tane Tahiti Pageant. The winners reign over the Heiva I Tahiti celebrations and bring attention and pride to their community.

Our pageant also bi-annually includes Maeva Iti for 4 to 7 year olds.

THERE WILL BE NO MAEVA ITI PAGEANT THIS YEAR. The

Maeva

Merced pageant will be held on the Friday of our fete. The contestants selected will best represent the goals and spirit of the Kiki Raina Tahiti Fete and Polynesian community.

PRESENTATION CONTENTS

This will be divided into three (3) phases. For the first, contestants will be introduced to the judges and audience on stage in formal attire. The second will involve modeling their costumes. The final phase will be an interview.

PERFORMANCE DATE

Maeva Merced will be awarded on Friday, March 24, 2017.

CHECK IN

Each contestant must check-in between 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm on Friday in order to gain free entry into the event. One hour before the pageant, all contestants must check in backstage with the pageant director and will be issued their contestant number. Contestants must be dressed and ready to go onstage.

DUTIES

Vahine, Tane and Iti winners are expected to attend the competition all three days and assist with festival activities and return the following year to “crown” the new winners. Past winners are also invited back to help with the pageant and the rest of the event.

Maeva winners will be expected to represent Kiki Raina in parades and at different functions. An $80.00 per diem, as well as transportation expense, will be provided for appearances other than the fete weekend.
