PRESENTATION CONTENTS All groups may present either Aparima, 'Ote'a or both styles of Tahitian dance including, but not limited to, Hivinau, Pa'oa, solo Ori Tahiti, Couples, Comedy, Drama or other forms of Tahitian Dance to Music. A traditional Drum Pehe section may be included. Ahuroa that is a separate category may not be included in Aparima/'Ote'a combined presentation.

PERFORMANCE DATE The Tamari'i, Beginner/Intermediate and Advanced on Sunday, March 20, 2023.

CHECK IN

Tamari'i ,Beginner/Intermediate and Advanced

Instructors/Directors or designated assistant must check-in their group between 8:00 am - 9:00 am on Sunday of the performance. The group entry fee includes entry into competition for the minimum number of combined performers and musicians, and will also include one (1) adult chaperon pass per seven (7) dancers/musicians, which must be designated as such on above list. Discounted $10 tickets will be available for additional performers above the Minimum. At check-in, directors will receive a packet containing their group's allotment of entry passes. This is for the day of performance only. Group Roster must match Group Participants list included on the application. Family and friends of competitors must purchase their own tickets.

CATEGORIES

Tamari'i Group: Aparima Or 'Ote'a

Performers may be up to and including thirteen (13) years of age as of March 20, 2023. Drummers and musicians may be of any age. Pre-recorded music is permitted but may result in lower score.

Beg/Int Amateur: Aparima or 'Ote'a

No age restrictions will be imposed. If the majority of the performers in the group perform at a student/community group level, then the group must register as an amateur. Groups may separate their presentation to aparima by itself or ote'a. Pre-recorded music is permitted but MUST be of high quality or may result in a lower music score.

Adv/Professional: Aparima or 'Ote'a

Performers must be at least twelve (12) years of age as of March 20, 2023. If the majority of the performers in the group perform on a continuous basis or on a professional level, then the group must register as professional. May not separate presentation, and must have live music.

Music Competition

This is an optional category for Beg/Int and Advanced groups who use live music. Judging will occur during the Aparima and/or Ahuroa segment, and "The Use of Tahitian Language/ Pronunciation/ Accompaniment" scores from the Aparima and/or Ahuroa score sheets will be part of the judging. Acoustic instruments will be given preference over electric instruments

GROUP SIZE CRITERIA

Tamari'i Group: Aparima or 'Ote'a

There must be a minimum of seven (7) performers and five (5) musicians. There is no maximum limit set, but additional dancers and musicians must purchase a ticket.

Beg/Int Amateur: Aparima or 'Ote'a

There must be a minimum of seven (7) performers and five (5) musicians. There is no maximum limit set, but additional dancers and musicians must purchase a ticket.

Adv/Professional: Aparima or 'Ote'a

There must be a minimum of fifteen (15) performers and seven (7) musicians. There is no maximum limit set, but additional dancers and musicians must purchase a ticket.

MULTIPLE ENTRIES

A Group may enter Tamari'i as well as Amateur Group and Professional Group category in 'Ote'a or Aparima, but may NOT use the same dancers in each Group Category.

If a group uses dancers in an Amateur Group Aparima/'Ote'a, these same dancers may not also represent the organization in Professional Group presentation or Tamari'i Group.

A group can enter the music competition with their Ahuroa as well as any Aparima, but they must pay for each entry.

GROUP PRESENTATIONS

The combined presentation must be performed in one-time period. In the event a combined Aparima/'Ote'a is performed and quick costume changes are needed by the dancers, a dressing space for quick costume changes will be located near the stage area.

DRESSING ROOM DEPOSIT

A money order or cashier’s check for $100.00 MUST accompany the group entry application as a cleaning deposit for the dressing room area. The check will be deposited, and money held until after the inspection of group dressing rooms on Sunday. The condition of the facility will determine if the deposit is to be returned, if so, a check will be written.

PHOTOGRAPHS

To be included in program, pictures need to be emailed to Program at kikiraina@hotmail.com no later than Feb 18th.
